

Orion Group Holdings, Inc. Announces Contract Award of Approximately $15 Million

July 13, 2020

HOUSTON--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jul. 13, 2020-- Orion Group Holdings, Inc. (NYSE: ORN) (the "Company") a leading specialty construction company, today announced a contract award of approximately $15 million.

The Company's Marine segment has been awarded a contract from the US Army Corps of Engineers ("USACE") to provide dredging services in Port Mansfield, Texas. The project award, which was the result of a competitive bid, requires dredging of approximately 1.8 million cubic yards of maintenance material from the main channels between the Padre Island jetties and the entrance to Port Mansfield. The work will begin in September and will be completed in the first quarter of 2021.

"This award provides us further visibility into the utilization of our dredging assets for the second half of 2020 and a portion of 2021. This project is one of many USACE jobs associated with the $5 billion of federal funding designated for Hurricane Harvey recovery efforts that we have been tracking," said Mark Stauffer, Orion's President and Chief Executive Officer.
